Day 1: Arrival in Orange

Sunday, 2nd March – Welcome Dinner

Arrive in the vibrant town of Orange and check into your 4-star accommodation. In the evening, join your fellow participants for a warm welcome dinner, where you'll meet Chan Dissanayake and get an overview of the week's artistic journey.

Day 2: Painting in Orange

Monday, 3rd March – Urban Inspirations

- Morning: Begin your artistic adventure by painting the dynamic urban landscapes of Orange, focusing on its vibrant streetscapes and lush vineyards.
- Lunch: Enjoy a meal at one of Orange's renowned local eateries (at your own expense).
- Afternoon: Continue your painting session, delving deeper into perspective and composition techniques under Chan's guidance.

Day 3: Exploring Milthorpe

Tuesday, 4th March – Historic Charm

- Morning: Travel by bus to the picturesque village of Milthorpe, known for its heritage-listed architecture and tranquil countryside. Capture its quaint charm in your morning painting session.
- Lunch: Savor a meal at a charming local café (at your own expense).
- Afternoon: Explore another scenic spot in Milthorpe and refine your work, guided by Chan's personalized instruction.

Day 4: Another Day in Milthorpe

Wednesday, 5th March – Artistic Immersion

- Morning & Afternoon: Spend the entire day in Milthorpe, diving deeper into your craft. Focus on capturing light, texture, and mood as you explore new techniques and create more detailed compositions.

Day 5: Painting in Carcoar and Blayney Thursday, 6th March – Dual Destinations

- Morning: Visit Carcoar, a beautifully preserved heritage village nestled in a serene valley. Paint its colonial architecture and peaceful ambiance.
- Lunch: Enjoy a meal at your leisure (at your own expense).
- Afternoon: Travel to Blayney, where golden fields and a warm rural charm offer fresh inspiration. End the day capturing its inviting landscapes and vibrant townscapes.

Day 6: Final Painting Day in Orange Friday, 7th March – Artistic Wrap-Up

- Morning: Return to Orange for your final painting session, applying the techniques and perspectives learned throughout the week.
- Lunch: Relish your last meal in Orange (at your own expense).
- Afternoon: Complete your artwork with Chan's expert feedback and encouragement.
- Evening: Celebrate your artistic journey with a farewell dinner, sharing stories and masterpieces with your newfound friends.

Day 7: Departure Saturday, 8th March – Farewell

After a hearty breakfast, enjoy complimentary transfers to the nearest airport or train station, taking home not only your artwork but also cherished memories of a week immersed in creativity and camaraderie.
